

July Laurel

Carpe Diem Farms

Be A Star For A Child

This season marks the 6th Annual Be A Star For A Child fundraising benefit for Carpe Diem Farms in Highlands, North Carolina. On August 16, Be A Star will kick off with an Afternoon in the Arena program followed by an evening event entitled A Celebration of Stars honoring the supporter's of Carpe Diem. The proceeds of this fund raising event go to support all of the children's programming at CDF. Children's programming at CDF include an Apprenticeships, Gar's Kids, Internships and After-School. All programs at CDF are dedicated to enhancing the human spirit through equines.

During An Afternoon in the Arena marvel at the talents of Tinker Moffitt as he prepares Battersea Tracy for her first ride ever. The spellbinding demonstration by Moffitt will convey a genre of communication that employs gentle discipline coupled with patterning techniques to earn the respect of the this spirited animal. A self-guided tour of Carpe Diem and a forum to meet the farms' horses will be components of the afternoon. Tickets for this event are $15.00 for children and $30.00 for adults. You may purchase tickets at the gate or by logging onto our website.

The day continues with the evening event for Be A Star: A Celebration of Stars will begin at 5:00 PM with a cocktail hour and live music. A dinner catered by Holly Roberts of The Kitchen will be followed by silent and live auctions. Tickets for this event include a pass to An Afternoon in the Arena and the 2008 Designer's Show House in Highlands. Tax deductible tickets are offered for 250.00 and may be purchased by logging onto www.carpediemfarms.org or calling 828-526-2854. For questions please email eleanorcrowe@aol.com.